

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE
INTRODUCTION TO THE INTERNET

Safe, responsible and acceptable use of computers and the Internet
School rules and consequences
Passwords and login procedures
Printing limits and procedures

History of the Internet
URL addresses
Menus, buttons and toolbars for Internet Explorer
Opening and exploring websites
Evaluating web sites
Verifying facts

Note taking using the Internet
Copying text
Formatting changes
Copying pictures
Removing hyperlinks from pictures
Copying tables and making adjustments
Citing sources

Search engines
Metasearch engines
Comparing results of search engines
Using Math to refine searches
Internet scavenger hunts

Writing photo essay
Finding facts to answer questions
Comparing news stories
Comparing products
Determining bias for political and other web sites

Using the Internet and a word processor to construct informational tables
Using the Internet to create a booklet
Using the Internet to create a research paper
Using the Internet to create a Works Cited page
Using the Internet to create an informative entertaining PowerPoint presentation
 Inserting. slides
 Adding text
 Adding pictures
 Adding sound
 Adding page animation
 Adding WordArt.